

IT'S HAPPENING HERE!

Media Contact:
Angela Menninger
602-373-8212 (mobile)
angela@dualitypr.com

MEDIA ALERT

TEMPE MARKETPLACE SUPPORTS LOCAL BANDS AND MUSICIANS EVERY WEEKEND, ALL OF FEBRUARY

Free Concerts Friday and Saturday Nights at the District Stage and Near Barnes & Noble Fountain

What: Get ready to keep moving and grooving your way toward the weekend because more live music is coming your way! Tempe Marketplace continues to offer live music every Friday and Saturday evening.

This February, guests have the chance to enjoy rhythm, jazz, pop, contemporary, funk, soul, folk, classical, easy listening... you name it! Popular Valley performances will include:

- When: Friday, Feb. 5, from 7 to 10 p.m., District Stage
We, Beloved, is an alternative indie, 3-piece upbeat rock band with punk rock influences;
- Friday, Feb. 5 from 7 to 9 p.m., Barnes & Noble Fountain
Victor Andrada, combines hints of jazz, folk blues, Spanish and swing with his smooth vocals and guitar;
- Saturday, Feb. 6 from 7 to 10 p.m., District Stage
Ratio is one of Arizona's premier bands specializing in rhythm and blues, jazz, funk and pop;
- Saturday, Feb. 6 from 7 to 9 p.m., Barnes & Noble Fountain
Grady Soiné of Gradymusic is an easy listening keyboardist offering a unique style of music;
- Friday, Feb. 12 from 7 to 10 p.m., District Stage
Sour Diesel Trainwreck is a four-piece, high-energy Americana/Southern rock/alternative country band;
- Friday, Feb. 12 from 7 to 9 p.m., Barnes & Noble Fountain
West Hills Brothers are a unique duo of acoustic/electric guitars, vocals and percussion classic that offers rock, pop, alternative and original tunes with their own unique style;
- Saturday, Feb. 13 from 7 to 10 p.m., District Stage
Scortched is a hard-driving acoustic electric rock band that delivers an original sound;
- Saturday, Feb. 13 from 7 to 9 p.m., Barnes & Noble Fountain
John Calvert brings earthy tunes from folk, jazz, flamenco and classical music with a calming yet adventurous spirit;
- Friday, Feb. 19 from 7 to 10 p.m., District Stage
The Chris G. Band is an alternative Indie band that offers unique vocals, along with a "fusion-esque" style of music;
- Friday, Feb. 19 from 7 to 9 p.m., Barnes & Noble Fountain
Pete Pancrazi is a jazz guitarist and vocalist recently named by Downbeat Magazine as "one to watch;"
- Saturday, Feb. 20 from 7 to 10 p.m., District Stage
Laura Walsh Band is a high-energy country rock band, who's a native Arizonan and is attracting attention in the Nashville music scene;

Saturday, Feb. 20 from 7 to 9 p.m., Barnes & Noble Fountain

76th Street featuring Haley & Spencer are indie singer and songwriters who believe that a song is an opportunity to tell a story in a way that relates an experience to a melody;

Friday, Feb. 26 from 7 to 10 p.m., District Stage

Advent Horizon is a high-energy progressive rock band, with a new album, "Stagehound" showcasing impressive instrumentation, catchy vocal patterns and a driving beat;

Friday, Feb. 26 from 7 to 9 p.m., Barnes & Noble Fountain

Ben Scolaro is a Phoenix-area jazz pianist, composer and arranger;

Saturday, Feb. 27 from 7 to 10 p.m., District Stage

Fire By Rank is a rock and metal band whose soul-punching rock has gained them a spot as a ReverbNation favorite; and

Saturday, Feb. 27 from 7 to 9 p.m., Barnes & Noble Fountain

Sandy Hathaway is an indie acoustic singer and songwriter whose music has been in the top three on ReverbNation for over six months.

Where: Tempe Marketplace, 2000 E. Rio Salado Parkway, Tempe (on the SW corner of Loops 101 & 202)

Info: For more information, visit www.tempemarketplace.com/events/live-music

###