TEMPE (October 8, 2008) – Tempe Marketplace, a 1.2 million square-foot regional center, developed by Vestar, that offers strategically integrated shopping, dining and entertainment in a festive, pedestrian-oriented village town center environment, announces a slew of new retailers amidst a weak economy.

“The next few months are going to be very busy for Desert Ridge Marketplace,” said Denise Hart, vice president of marketing for Vestar. “Though the media continue reports of a weakened economy, we are happy to announce we have almost half a dozen new retailers opening their doors. And the retailers we’ve attracted have been highly courted throughout the Valley, so we are thrilled to have created partnerships that resulted in signed leases at Desert Ridge.”

Opening at the end of July is the highly-anticipated Total Wine & More, the largest independent fine wine retailer in the country and the only major fine wine company to operate in multiple states. The fine wine store will occupy 19,000 square-feet of space right off the main drive and Tatum Boulevard. Total Wine is unique because each of its stores carries a selection of more than 8,000 different wines from every wine-producing region in the world. As the preeminent fine wine store in each of its markets, Total Wine & More is the leading non-supermarket seller of fine wine in the United States. This is Total Wine’s second Valley location.

And a coup for Desert Ridge is the fall opening of Arizona’s first Bath Junkie® location. Bath Junkie provides high-quality bath products, custom mixed to consumer’s exact color and fragrance specifications. The bath product retailer has over 200 fragrances to choose from which are divided into separate categories for consumers to peruse. From blackberry sage to vanilla, consumers can be as imaginative or as classic as they wish in creating their personalized bath product. Bath Junkie will be located near the District Stage in 1,000 square-feet of space.
Another noteworthy achievement for the retail center is the signing of new tenant San Felipe’s Cantina. The restaurant, owned by Jim Keller and Drew Gruver, serves up Costal Mexican food alongside a night life atmosphere. San Felipe’s recently closed its highly popular DC Ranch location in preparation for its fall opening at Desert Ridge Marketplace. The 3,269 square-foot restaurant will be located in the District near the Harkin’s Theater.

“We are excited about our move to Desert Ridge Marketplace and to be in the company of such an impressive list of new and existing retailers,” said Jim Keller, co-owner of San Felipe’s Cantina. “Desert Ridge is the hallmark of outstanding retail development and it was a natural choice for our new location.”

Rounding out the extensive list of signed tenants is Game Stop and Alltel. Game Stop is the world’s largest video game retailer. With over 4,000 stores located throughout the United States and 15 countries, it is the retail destination for gamers around the world. Game Stop will occupy 1,500 square-feet in the heart of The District shops and across from The District Stage. The store is expected to open before the holiday season.

Alltel, which is headquartered in Little Rock, Ark., has America’s largest network – covering more of the country than any other company. It serves nearly 12 million wireless customers in 35 states. Alltel will open its Desert Ridge location in the fall and will occupy 3,187 square-feet of space between Kohl’s and DSW on the south side of the center.
